Our Story Gemma, which is Italian for "Precious Jewel", was born in October of 2000, and is my granddaughter. She was named by my father, Joseph Fugarino, better known as Giuseppe, a Milwaukee restaurateur. To Gemma he was papa. Gemma spent many hours with me in the kitchen. One day she asked if we could make cheesecake. We went to our friend Linda, who showed us how to make one. I gathered up the ingredients and began to experiment. After many hours of a lot of cheesecakes I began to perfect my craft. This was the start of Gemma Rae's Home Style Cheesecakes. We use fresh ingredients and our cakes are never frozen. Each cake includes a secret ingredient. As Gemma would say, "Grandma, it's time to add a little love." Eat and Enjoy! - Tim and Joann Rader
